PHS PARTICIPATES

IN SPOTLIGHT '75

Spotlight '75 was a bicentennial celebration of America's musical heritage performed by the talented students of the Petersburg Public Schools. The students worked diligently for five long weeks to make it the best. Spotlight commanded everyone's attention from "The Continental" to "We May Never Love Like This Again." Much of the audience was unfamiliar with many of the Academy Award winning songs but were spell-bound by the "Spotlighters."

All together now.

When is it going to start?

Just Relaxing.

There you are.

PIGS . . . Care for any?

He did it!

Hamburgers!!

Are they ready yet?

Getting off.

People have better things to do than eat LUNCH.

What's going on under here?

Please don't cry.

science club takes on the faculty

Students are searching for love, peace and understanding Times have been rough but we've learned to communicate with one another Unity has enabled us to become sisters and brothers
Decisions and choices are befronting us each day Enabling us to speak whatever we wish to say Never hurting each others' feeling but always showing deep concern Teaching each other the things that we may need to learn Searching for that bright tomorrow that lies behind each passing day Outstretched hands, open hearts and willing minds Face those who are determined to search and in doing so, be able to find Perpetuating eternal laughter and joy
Helping us to build and not to destroy Serving P.H.S. is what we enjoy

The Origin of WPHS

WPHS-TV10 was first organized as a cooperative effort between the journalism and mass media classes. The inability to coordinate these classes led to the replacement of the journalism classes by the creative writing students as script writers. Presently the creative writing students handle the entire production.

The purpose of the station are as follows:

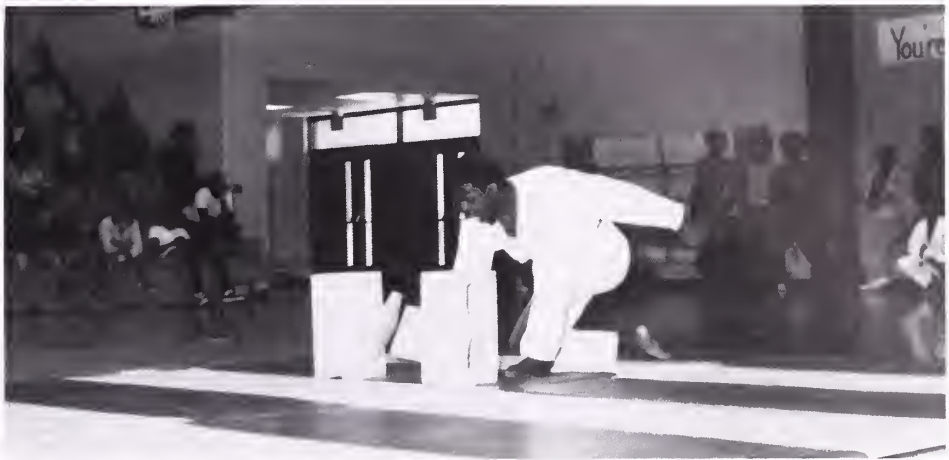

1. To keep the student body informed of the "happenings" around the school.
2. To provide opportunity for students to voice their opinions.
3. To bring community resources to the students so that they may become aware of benefits provided by the community.
4. To provide exposure for talent throughout the school.
5. To provide practical experience in all aspects of television production.

U. S. Armed Forces

Representatives from various branches of the Armed Services came to talk with the students. They offered interesting advice on making the service a career. Young women are now, too, an integral part of the Armed Forces as evidenced by the presence of many females at this exhibition.

Offer Rewarding Careers

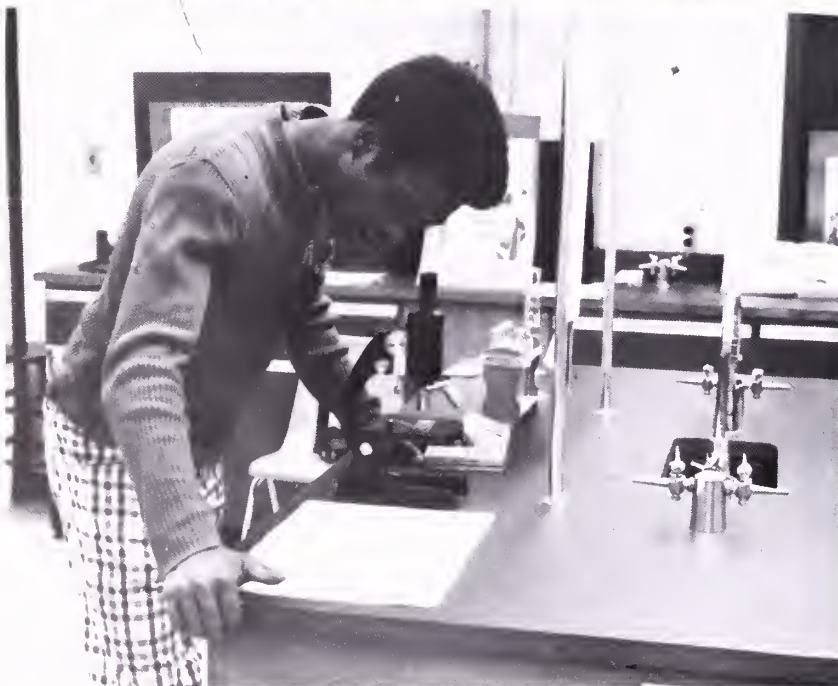

Carol O'Neal, Wilbert Fields and Jacque Myers gleam as they make a new discovery.

Deborah McCray explains the astronomical discoveries of Benjamin Banneker.

Terri Hand is assisted by Mark Mizelle and Wilbert Fields in taking her blood pressure.

Wilbert Fields examines blood cells.

Lenette Given glances at other interesting projects.

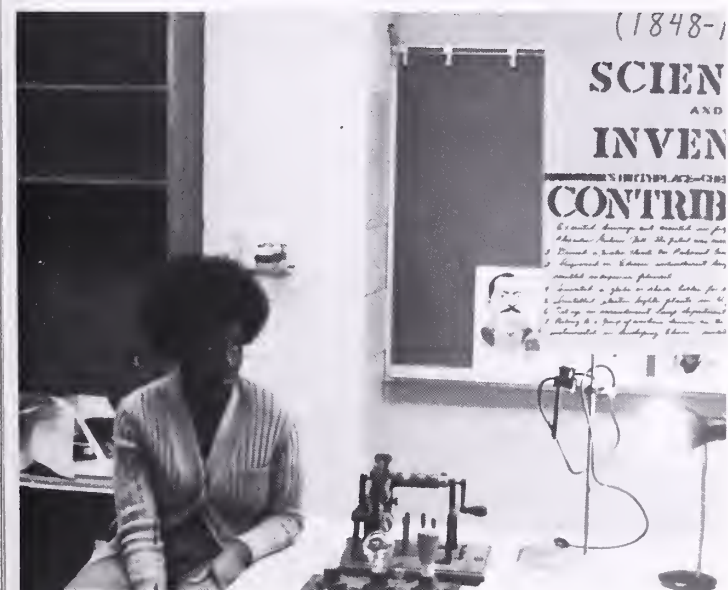

Steve Klingel refines sugar using Narbert Rillieux's evaporating process.

Jesse Moore, Harry Shands and Bragg Simmons are amazed at the construction of the igloo where Matthew Henson once lived.

Robin Sykes and Jacque Myers observe George Washington Carver's peanut products.

Lewis Latimer is the subject of this exhibition attended by Aaron Connier.

Mrs. Narbey (sponsar) proudly accepts compliments from Mr. Alexander.

The Alumni

Members of the City Council, School Board, retired teachers, Petersburg Boosters Club and graduates of 50 years or more joined 550 seniors. We listened to guest speaker, Mr. John Meade, Superintendent of Schools, and the music of the Petersburg Youth Choir which is directed by the Rev. Vernon Billie Lee. The music of this group still vibrates in my memory and the fellowship of the entire group will long be remembered. I am proud of my hometown, the new school, the conduct of the students, and my many dear friends!

What we're talking about here is our bank, F&M, and this diabolical scheme we have to make it your bank.

First, we can threaten you with one of our free checking accounts.

Which require no minimum balance, and no service charges.

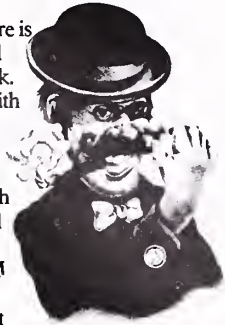

Or we can angle for your cash with one of our tempting high-yield savings accounts. Or innocently invite you to apply for a special F&M Student BankAmericard® (It's as handy as any other charge card, but your credit limit won't be so high as to give Pop apoplexy, if you know what we mean.)

Anyhow, these three are just a small sampling of the many financial services we have to offer at F&M.

For all we know, if we can entice you into just one of them, you'll wind up hooked on us for a lifetime.

First & Merchants National Bank. (Would a member of the FDIC lead you astray?)

®Service marks owned and licensed by BankAmerica Corporation.

SENIORS

WE REMEMBER . . . YEARS AT P.H.S.)

AS SOPHOMORES, WE REMEMBER:

electing Marvin, Sandra, and Michelle as officers bumping to our thing in the gym suffering in the heat (No A.C.) giving the Spirit Stick BACK to the Seniors (Embarrassed) welcoming bomb threats and that "back from the building" during dangerous traffic invading Charlottesville with the wave machine (We are No. 1) crossing Funky Creek relaxing under shady trees breaking away from the "undelicious" food during exams selecting Wanda, Sandra, and Tichuana as Sophomore Homecoming contestants taking art in "The white house" wondering how the Seniors got to the balcony of the auditorium first having more trouble with our lockers than everyone else did knowing Mr. Stulett only as a voice on the intercom wishing there was a COLD water fountain walking l-o-n-g hall ways jamming in the small bandroom cramming in the library crowding in the gym when we all wanted to get in it together hanging out the 2nd and 3rd floor windows climbing a-l-l those steps!

We remember (the old) Petersburg High

AS JUNIORS, WE REMEMBER:

voting for Angela, Sandra, and Michelle as officers shocking the other classes with our NEW spirit winning second place in Homecoming float competition bragging about Coco being Homecoming Queen having Lynn and Francine as Football Sweetheart contestants dribbling over Seniors in basketball demonstrating because our talent show was cut short STEPPING INTO OUR WORLD THROUGH A PINK AND GREEN RING (and showing our rings off)

Hey Y'all it's Pep Rally Time!!

The Class of '76 Ring Dance

Top: SMOKE filled the room with music.
Right: During the break, guys discussed after dance plans.

Pink and Green Decorated the '76 Ring Dance.

Top Right: "Spirit of 76" in pink and green.
Bottom Left: Couples pose under the symbolic class ring.
Bottom Right: Everyone was caught up in their own worlds.

If you're hungry, it's good.

There's always time for Hardee's.

Don't bother me now I'm studying.

Did you get that problem right?

Express your creativity in art.

Take a b-r-e-a-k.

Work That We Can Really SEE

Make it SATISFYING

So You Think the Armed Forces Might Be Your Way.

"Do you understand?"

STOP looking around and fill out your answer sheet!

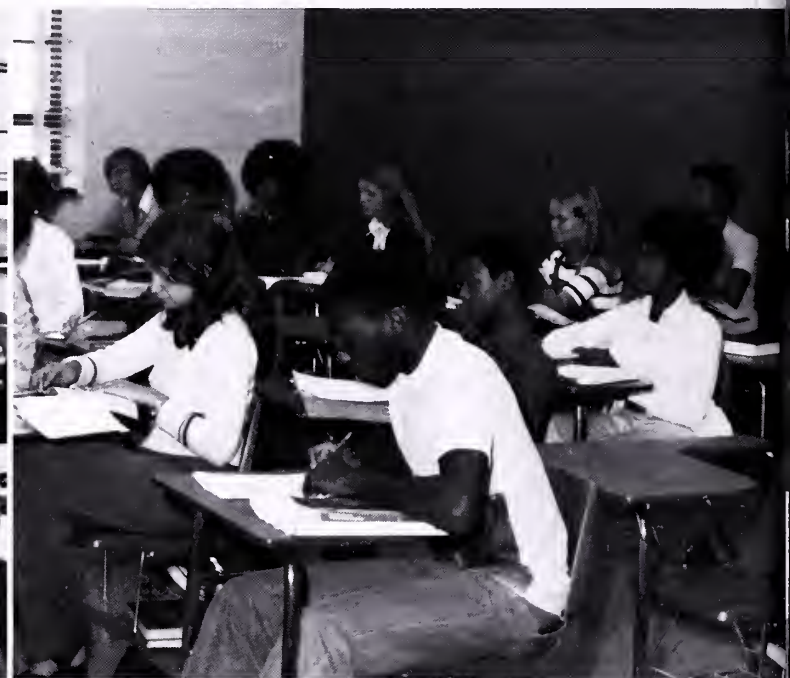

We've been filling in circles since the sixth grade and this is the first time they ever gave us anything! (Get a pencil)

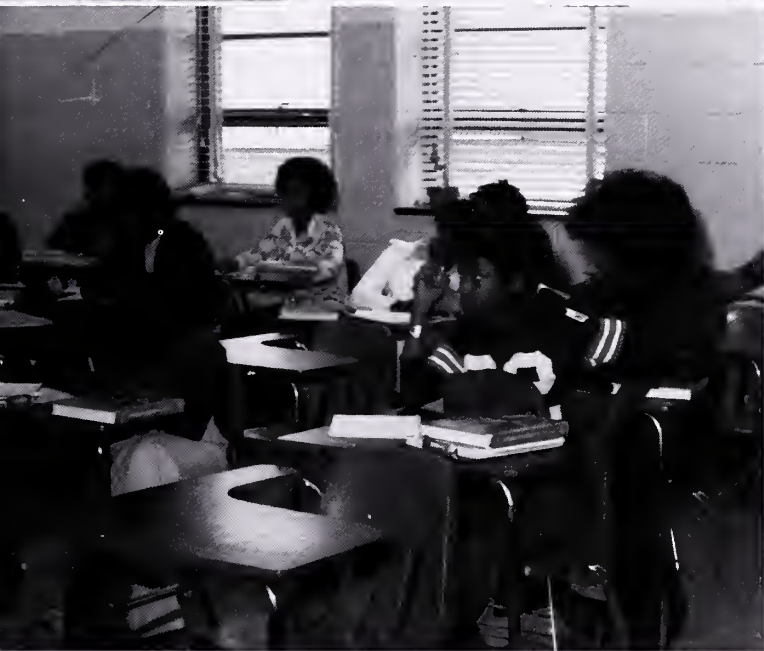

Do you think they are taking this test seriously?

Work Seems Harder When

You're Trying to Exempt

Seniors take steps toward graduation and start new tradition of crimson and gold caps and gowns.

76

We, the graduating class of 76, are now leaving Petg. High
We look back over the memories, both good and bad, and now we say good-bye.

For we must cram all the experiences
we've shared within these dear walls.
Into the treasure-chest of our hearts, that at times, seem so small. We've felt the impulse to grow, to reach out and to touch

And now it all seems like a dream we have awakened from and dread so very much.

We'll miss the crowded hall-ways with smiling faces and cheerful hellos.
But we'll move on remembering it all, regardless of the direction each of us may go.

We'll leave a place in our hearts for the memories of dear 'ole P.H.S.
Hoping we'll achieve our goals and above all, reach success.

Jo Ann Webb

COCKADE MONUMENT

Across the road the monument surmounted by a gold eagle honors Captain Richard McRae and his company of Petersburg Volunteers who won fame in the war of 1812 and caused this city to be known as The Cockade City of the Union.

The iron enclosure of the monument contains symbolic designs of the arms used in the war 1812.

"BEST YEAR-ROUND SPORTS"
VIRGINIA 1974

Salute to Class of '76

We're in the process of moving on...

In many ways... and to many places...

Often we stop to hang around—Or take time out to get involved.

But move on!
There are lakes to swim Frisbees to be thrown.

Many thanks to Ronald Ponton and Cindy Wood for artwork; Mrs.
Musgrove and Mrs. Brooks for the cover; Mr. Sublett and Mr.
Pegram; and Mrs. Hugate and Mr. Alexander for their guidance.
